A chat with the management of the Occidental Grande Casino revealed that the newly renovated facility would be soon opening a Poker Room dedicated to the latest craze, Texas Hold 'em. Not only will there be tournaments with guaranteed purses, but they will conduct workshops to assist novices in mastering the game. At present, their weekly Thursday night Slots Tournament is open to any participants, without an entrance fee, and a guaranteed $500 grand prize. Additionally, coming soon will be the return of the Blackjack Tournaments that are so popular, with a $600 guaranteed purse.

The joint was jumping on Friday night at The Occidental Grande Casino, and that was literally, as island visitors tried moving like the dancers do, or won at bingo. Joe Bogus of Philadelphia can tell you his wife Charlotte certainly jumped for joy at the thought that she will get a great deal and an additional discount on some beautiful quality jewelry at Gemani Jewelers! Congratulations Joe and Charlotte!
